

CONTINUING EDUCATION MODULE QUIZ “BUILDING PRODUCT TRANSPARENCY”

Name: _____ AIA Member # (if applicable): _____

Firm Name: _____ City/State: _____

E-mail: _____ Phone: _____

Mark the choice that best represents the answer[s] to each question.

1. A tool that allows building professionals to understand the environmental impacts associated with building products is:
 - a. Life Cycle Costing
 - b. Energy Modeling
 - c. Life Cycle Assessment
 - d. Lighting Retrofits

2. EPD's are a Type III verified ecolabel?
 - a. True
 - b. False

3. Life Cycle Assessments follow a standard by:
 - a. ASTM
 - b. ASHRAE
 - c. ISO

4. Life Cycle Assessment information for products is communicated in a document called:
 - a. PCR
 - b. NRC
 - c. CAC
 - d. EPD

5. Which of the following are Life Cycle Assessment impact categories reported in an Environmental Product Declaration?
 - a. Primary Energy Demand
 - b. Heating and Cooling Loads
 - c. Global Warming Potential
 - d. Only A and C
 - e. A, B, & C

6. What type of information can you expect to find in a Material Ingredient – Manufacturer Inventory for a product?
 - a. Design trends
 - b. Product Content
 - c. VOC Emissions and content
 - d. Only B and C
 - e. A, B & C

7. Name one of the three new credits under the LEEDv4 Building Product Disclosure and Optimization MR credits?
 - a. Material Ingredients
 - b. Life Cycle Impacts
 - c. Pilot Credit 55: Bird Collision Deterrence
 - d. Sustainable Sites

To receive credit for this course, please e-mail your completed quiz to abptrainingplm@armstrong.com or print and fax to 717.396.5033. Check here if you require a certificate of completion.

You will receive via e-mail within ten days of our receipt of this quiz.

NOTE: IDCEC members are required to self-report.