METALLAIRE™ BACKSPLASH AND WALL APPLICATIONS

Metallaire™ ceiling tiles are not only beautiful in detail and form, but functional as well when used as a backsplash or on an entire wall. 18 1/2-in x 48 1/2-in stainless steel Metallaire panels are the best option for a backsplash, as this material is naturally resistant to rust and panels are sized appropriately for typical applications. However, 24-in x 48-in Metallaire panels in Chrome, Copper, Brass, Lacquered Steel and White may also be used if appropriate care is taken when used as a backsplash. The larger panels are made of raw steel and, while coated to protect from rust, it's important to avoid nicks, abrasive cleaners, and prolonged exposure to steam or water to maintain the product's appearance and performance.
